21.2. The Buyer acknowledges and agrees (or is deemed to acknowledge and agree) that where title in goods or services passes to the Buyer, for any reason whatsoever, these Terms and Conditions constitute a security agreement providing for both future advances and a security in favour of the Supplier in all the Buyer's present and after acquired property and the proceeds thereof, but excluding property (other than the said proceeds) not supplied by the Supplier.

Where the Buyer has been put on notice by the Supplier that the supply has been of a Protected Seed Variety, the Buyer agrees not to do anything that would render the Supplier in breach of its agreement with the plant breeder, and the indemnities at 24.2 will apply. The Buyer furthermore acknowledges that a failure to comply with this clause could render the Buyer liable under the Plant Variety Rights Act 1987.

25. General

In the event that there is a conflict, these Terms and Conditions will be paramount.
